The Pearl Fincher Museum of Fine Arts was opened in 2008 in order to bring world-class art exhibitions to Northwest Houston. The museum compliments its exhibitions with an active schedule of educational programs and services. Founded on the community center concept, the Pearl reaches beyond traditional museums to enlighten, educate, and entertain.

Website: www.pearlmfa.org

Directions: Pearl Fincher Museum is located next to the Barbara Bush Library on Cypresswood Drive.

Age Restriction: None

Orientation/training: Provided by museum staff before each event (at start of volunteer shift).

Dress Code: Legacy purple Polo with jeans or capris and comfortable shoes. Volunteers are not allowed to volunteer wearing shorts. Legacy members are encouraged to use the Legacy fanny pack to hold the Legacy Service Hour sheet, car keys, money, identification, and cell phone.

Volunteering Opportunities:

Drop-In Art Wednesdays (up to 6 volunteers per shift)

During the summer, the museum hosts a program series every Wednesday afternoon (3-4pm) offering free hands-on art projects, story time readings, and artist demonstrations to the community. Different projects are planned for each week and are inspired by the museum's summer art exhibitions.

* Event Time: 3:00-4:00pm - Volunteer Shift Time: 2:00-4:30pm

Creek Fest

Creek Fest is a one-day arts festival held in Northwest Houston (at museum and neighboring locations) to promote the fine arts organizations, outdoor parks, and other community resources of the Greater Cypress Creek Area.

**When: Saturday in the Month of October (TBA)

Sign up to Volunteer through the Museum's online sign up. Legacy Service VP will forward you an email with the link to volunteer about one month prior to the event.

Volunteer Procedures: Legacy Volunteers must sign in and out at the front desk in the PFM volunteer log. Also, please have a Pearl Fincher Museum staff member sign the Legacy Service Hour sheet.

If a Legacy member does not have the service hour sheet with them, they may return to the museum later the same day as volunteering or the next day but no later, to have a Museum staff member sign the service hour sheet. The Museum staff will review the Museum volunteer sign in log to verify the number of hours the Legacy member volunteered.
